Concrete masonry buildings are structurally sound. They are weather, earthquake, flood and fire resistant. Concrete masonry does not burn, melt, or warp, and is the ideal material for fire-resistant applications. Concrete masonry also resists mold, insects, and other pests that plague other building materials. For these reasons and more, concrete masonry is a safe bet for your building needs.

FIND OUT MORE AT WHYMASONRY.ORG